Introduction

This booklet provides a brief summary of the work of the Masonic Charitable Foundation (MCF), the central charity for Craft Freemasonry.

The MCF builds better lives by encouraging opportunity, promoting independence and improving wellbeing for Freemasons, their families and the wider community.

The MCF offers vital assistance to Freemasons; their married, life, widowed, divorced and separated partners; as well as their children, stepchildren and grandchildren who are under 25 and in full-time education. Other relations may also qualify for support if they can demonstrate that a Freemason has provided them with significant financial or physical support.

Every Freemason, regardless of rank or office, is encouraged to read this booklet so that he is aware of the support that is available from the MCF.

The original version of this booklet was produced following the Board of General Purposes' report, adopted by Grand Lodge on 14 December 1983, which stated:

"The Board feels that every member of the Craft should possess a copy of this booklet. It recommends that each newly made mason, and every brother who joins from another Constitution, should be given a copy of the booklet with the Book of Constitutions, and that a copy should be presented to each newly installed Master."

This version replaces the 2020 edition ('Information for Freemasons and their families'). A copy is issued with each Book of Constitutions supplied by the United Grand Lodge of England (UGLE). Further copies can be obtained from:

The MCF relies upon the continued support of Freemasons to identify those in need and to provide the generous donations that fund its work. All Freemasons under the United Grand Lodge of England support the work of the MCF through their lodges. Other funding is raised through festivals held by Provinces each year and other gifts, donations and legacies.

The booklet does not aim to provide all the answers on what the MCF does – it simply seeks to give information about the wide variety of support that may be available and offer advice on making an application.

Further details about making an application to the MCF are available from your lodge Almoner or your Metropolitan or Provincial Grand Almoner.

This booklet also includes information about the Mark Benevolent Fund and other Freemasonry charities that may be able to assist you.

Masonic Charitable Foundation

Building better lives

The MCF aims to be a force for good by providing support, care and services to Freemasons and their families in need, and supporting other charities to help the most disadvantaged people in society.

Governance

The MCF is managed by a board of trustees in accordance with the Articles of Association. The board is led by a chairman who is appointed annually. There are also two members appointed by each Province. The charity is administered by a chief executive, operations director and staff team.

Support and services

The MCF is here to support Freemasons and their families when life takes an unexpected turn for the worse. A wide range of help and support is available for daily living costs; health, care and wellbeing; and children, young people and education.

In addition to the support provided to Freemasons and their families, the MCF tackles some of the most significant challenges facing society, in particular, reducing isolation in later life and ensuring a positive future for young people.

Funded entirely through the generosity of Freemasons and their families, the MCF helps to improve the lives of thousands of people every year in England, Wales and overseas by working in partnership with some of the country's biggest charities. The MCF also helps to fund the vital work of hospices and regularly contributes to appeals for disaster relief worldwide.

Origins

The charitable support of Freemasons has existed since the 18th century, providing support to Freemasons and their families. The MCF brings together the work of The Freemasons' Grand Charity, the Royal Masonic Trust for Girls and Boys, the Royal Masonic Benevolent Institution and the Masonic Samaritan Fund.

The separate charities continue to exist as funds within the MCF, but their work has now been consolidated under the MCF. The RMBI Care Co. also continues to provide high-quality care services for older people.

Who is eligible?

Those seeking support must demonstrate the following:

A connection to a Freemason

Help is available for Freemasons under the United Grand Lodge of England, as well as people with a strong connection to a Freemason. This includes Freemasons' married, life, widowed, divorced or separated partners; their children, stepchildren and grandchildren under the age of 25 and in full-time education; or someone that can demonstrate significant and long-term physical or financial support from a Freemason.

A Freemason does not necessarily need to be currently subscribing, but he must have been a member before the need arose.

A life-changing event or unexpected distress

Those seeking support must also demonstrate a life-changing event or unexpected distress, such as a decrease in household income, medical diagnosis, changing care needs, family breakdown or the death of a family member.

How to apply for support

The MCF treats all enquiries and applications sympathetically and in the strictest confidence.

Speak to your lodge Almoner about applying for a grant or contact the MCF directly to begin your application.

If the MCF can help and you would like to apply, a representative of the charity will visit you. They will support you to complete the application form which will help the Masonic Support team understand your circumstances in more detail.

A member of the Masonic Support team will let you know when your application has been received and keep you updated on its progress.

If approved, a payment will be made directly to you or to a supplier if your need is for equipment or a service.

If the MCF is unable to assist, staff will try to direct you to other organisations that may be able to help.

Advice, counselling and other support

Alongside the MCF's grants, a wide range of practical support is available for you and your family from the Advice & Support Team and the counselling service.

Advice & Support Team

The Advice & Support Team (AST) provides a free, independent and confidential service on behalf of the MCF.

The AST offers advice, guidance and support on a range of issues that can affect Freemasons and their families. They can help you through difficult times by listening to you, understanding your needs, discussing potential solutions and directing you to organisations and services that can help.

Examples of the advice and support available from the AST include:

- Talking about financial difficulties
- Assisting with applications for charitable support
- Discussing the best approach to meet your care needs
- Exploring how home adaptations and mobility aids can help you maintain independence
- Supporting your children or grandchildren with practical advice on education and wellbeing
- Signposting you to state and local authority benefits and services available from other charitable organisations

Counselling service

The MCF offers a confidential, free counselling service for Freemasons and their eligible family members.

The counselling service can offer support for:

- Anxiety, depression or stress
- Feelings of uncertainty, growing worry or panic
- Adjusting to retirement or workplace pressures
- Financial worries or debt
- Bereavement, divorce and loneliness
- Illness, addiction or family ill health

The service is independently operated by trained counsellors who will listen and offer professional guidance. Up to six telephone sessions with a trained counsellor can be arranged. Alternatively, face-to-face sessions can be provided within 15 miles of a person's home or work.

Freemasons, their married, life, widowed, divorced or separated partners, as well as their children who are between the ages of 17-25 and in full-time education can access the counselling service.

Other relations may also qualify for support if they can demonstrate that a Freemason has provided them with significant financial or physical support.

Where the service identifies that a higher level of support is needed, it may be possible to provide enhanced mental health support. This is subject to a financial assessment and usually requires a visit from a member of our Advice & Support Team.

If your need cannot be supported through the MCF, you will be signposted to other organisations that may be able to help.

Grants to charities

The MCF tackles some of society's most important issues through grants to local and national charities, and partnerships with leading organisations in the sector. With grants totalling around £5.5 million each year, the MCF helps thousands of disadvantaged and vulnerable people to live happy, fulfilling lives and participate actively in society.

The MCF's grant programmes for charities target funding where it is most needed, within the areas about which Freemasons care most passionately. The target areas are currently:

- Reducing isolation in later life
- Creating the best start in life for disadvantaged children and young people
- Medical research into degenerative diseases
- Funding care services in the hospice sector

The target areas are reviewed each year to ensure grants are making the greatest possible impact.

Over the last forty years, Freemasons have provided over £135 million to local and national charities through its central charities.

 mcf.org.uk/community

The MCF support Lifelites, a charity that provides and maintains specialist technology packages for the 10,000 terminally-ill and disabled children using every children's hospice service across the British Isles.

These packages help children who are often restricted by their conditions to play, be creative, communicate and control something for themselves, for as long as it is possible.

Originally founded by Freemasons as a charitable project, Lifelites is now a well-established charity in its own right raising all its own funds. The MCF helps Lifelites by donating office premises and administrative services, meaning Lifelites can use the funds it raises on delivering life-enhancing technology.

Supporting the MCF

The MCF relies upon the generous donations of Freemasons, their families and friends to provide its wide range of charitable support. The MCF does not fundraise from members of the public or use street collections.

There are many ways to raise money including sponsored challenges and social events, but signing up to regular giving with Gift Aid is one of the easiest.

Festival appeals

Each year, four Provinces hold a festival event to celebrate the end of a fundraising appeal, during which a range of activities take place that make a significant contribution to the MCF's income.

Fundraising support

The MCF can provide sponsorship forms and other materials for fundraisers such as promotional items and printed materials.

For more information, please email:

 fundraising@mcf.org.uk

Legacies

Leaving a legacy in your will can make an important contribution to the funding of the MCF. Every gift, large or small, can help to make a difference to those assisted through the charity's grants and services.

For more information on legacy giving or to order a free guide to making a will, please visit:

The Relief Chest Scheme

The Relief Chest Scheme is a free service to help lodges, chapters, Provinces and other recognised masonic organisations manage their charitable giving efficiently.

Funds placed in Relief Chests are held securely by the MCF until they are given to a charity by the donors.

The Relief Chest Scheme helps donors to save time, take control and give more.

Banner stands and other promotional items are also available on request.

Mark Benevolent Fund

Registered Charity No 207610

Assisting Mark Master Masons in distress

The Mark Benevolent Fund (MBF) came into existence in 1868 on the suggestion of the Grand Master, the Reverend Canon George Raymond Portal, whose views on charity were far more progressive and radical than the general thinking of the times.

Today, the MBF provides grants to eligible Mark Master Masons and their dependants in need, and to other worthy causes throughout England and Wales.

How to apply

Petitions for relief are received from lodge Almoners and visiting brethren via their Provincial Grand Almoners or secretaries. The MBF Petitions Committee sits on a regular monthly basis to consider cases and relief is almost immediate upon approval.
